

November 2011

The purpose of this letter is to keep you advised about issues affecting our physician-patient relationship and your health care options.

You may have already heard the exciting news: effective October 1, 2011, I have joined the highly regarded and respected MemorialCare Health System as part of the MemorialCare Medical Group network of physicians. I will be terminating my contract with Monarch Healthcare effective December 31, 2011.

Should you desire to continue your physician-patient relationship with me, allowing me to continue to serve as your primary care physician ("PCP"), you will need to follow the instructions below:

If you are a Medicare, PPO, Tri-Care or Private Pay patient: No action is required to continue your care with me.

If you are an HMO patient: Please contact your health plan Member Services and request you be reassigned to MemorialCare Medical Group using the health plan specific PCP ID number from the chart provided below.

If you desire to continue your physician-patient relationship with me but your health plan advises you that you have been assigned to a different medical group rather than MemorialCare Medical Group, you may still maintain your physician-patient relationship with me if you call your health plan and request that the health plan immediately reassign you to MemorialCare Medical Group. If instead, you desire to change to a new PCP, you may do so by advising your health plan. Please note that the Member Services phone number of your health plan is listed on the back of your health plan member ID card. For your convenience, these phone numbers are also listed below. You should determine which of the options outlined above is best for you.

*Please note the MD ID number listed above for Anthem Blue Cross, UnitedHealthcare and Secure Horizons is a temporary MemorialCare Medical Group-San Clemente Site number. While we are waiting for these health plans to issue an HMO number specific for Dr. Idnani, you are able to continue your care with Dr. Idnani when you switch to MemorialCare Medical Group using the temporary site number. Please call the office for more information.

I have enjoyed serving as your physicians and am thrilled to join the outstanding family of MemorialCare Medical Group offices. If you have any questions about our physician-patient relationship or your health care options, please ask me or call MemorialCare Medical Group general information line at 866-276-3627.

Sincerely,

Usha Idnani, M.D.
